The Parthenon Mosque
Elizabeth Key Fowden
Senior Researcher, Impact of the Ancient City, Faculty of Classics, University of Cambridge

Medieval Kashan: City of Scholars and Artisans
Roy Mottahedeh
Gurney Professor of History, Emeritus, Department of History, Harvard University

Turkish Habits: Ottoman Fashion and Self-Fashioning on the World Stage
Ünver Rüstem
Assistant Professor of Islamic Art and Architecture, Johns Hopkins University; Harvard AKPIA Fellow

Drawings and Models: Architectural Processes in a Seventeenth-Century Book on Ottoman Architecture
Gül Kale
Getty/ACLS Postdoctoral Fellow in Art History; Harvard AKPIA Associate

The Concept of ‘Persianate’ as Applied to Delhi Sultanate Architecture and Décor
Yves Porter
Professor of Islamic Art History, Aix-Marseille Université, Institut Universitaire de France
Co-sponsor, the Committee on Medieval Studies

The Uses of Antiquities: Archaeology, Museums, and Diplomacy in Pre-colonial Tunisia
Ridha Moumni
Curator, cultural advisor, Tunis; Harvard AKPIA Fellow

THE AGA KHAN PROGRAM FOR ISLAMIC ARCHITECTURE
AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY

Lectures are free and open to the public. They are held Thursdays, 6:00-7:30pm, at the Real Colegio Complutense, 26 Trowbridge Street, Cambridge, MA
For further information, call 617-495-2355 or email agakhan@fas.harvard.edu