

Fall 2020 AKPIA Seminar Series: A Forum for Islamic Art & Architecture

Zoom sessions presented by recent graduates

Open to current AKPIA students, or by invitation only

October 15, 2020, 6pm

"Between Muraqqa' and Encyclopedia:
Mughal-French Exchange in the Late
Eighteenth Century"

Chanchal Dadlani

Associate Professor of Art History,
Wake Forest University
Harvard HAA PhD '09

Image: Detail from the Gentil Album, 1774. Watercolor on paper, 37 x 53.5 cm. London: Victoria and Albert Museum (IS 25-1980 (31)). Photo: © Victoria and Albert Museum, London

November 5, 2020, 6pm

"Mapping Cosmopolitanism: An
Eighteenth-Century Printed Ottoman
Atlas and the Turn to Baroque"

Ünver Rüstem

Assistant Professor of Art History,
Johns Hopkins University
Harvard HAA PhD '13

Image: Cartouche of a copperplate map of Northern Asia, signed by Migirdiç Galatavi. From Katib Çelebi, Kitâb-ı Cihânnümâ, published by İbrahim Müteferrika, Istanbul, 1732. (The Lilly Library, Indiana University, Bloomington, DR 403 .M835, double-page pl. between pp. 165 and 166 [detail])

December 3, 2020, 6pm

"Professor Wace's Turkish Sampler:
Ottoman Embroiderers and
Continental Collectors of Woven
Archaeologies"

Deniz Türker

Assistant Professor, Islamic Art and Architecture, Rutgers, The State
University of New Jersey
Harvard CMES/HAA PhD '16

Image: Detail from Ottoman sampler, c. 1860s, The Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge, T.1-1956

THE AGA KHAN PROGRAM FOR ISLAMIC ARCHITECTURE AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY

To register, or for further information, email agakhan@fas.harvard.edu